VOCATIONS CORNER: "Looking back on my early life, I can't say that I ever thought of myself as "nun material". I spent my days playing sports, listening to music, fighting with my sisters & limiting my conversations with God to "Hi!" & "Will you, please?" In high school, I was trying to find my identity my fitting in. In college, I got involved in Campus ministry. While on retreat, I experienced Eucharistic adoration for the first time... I offered my heart to God & said, "How can I give back to you all that you've given to me?" I was surprised to hear His loving invitation: "You could give your life to me." After I entered religious life, I doubted whether or not I could be fulfilled in my vocation. I felt immense peace after receiving an answer: "You will never be fulfilled in this life – that is what heaven is for." Sr. Coleen Mattingly, Apostle of the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

PALM SUNDAY: We encounter Jesus this week in Jerusalem. We prayerfully enter our own communities too, encountering those who are hungry & thirsty & those who need our help. Visit crsricebowl.org for more.

PRAYING THE PSALMS WITH JESUS THIS LENT: This week, connect Psalm 22:1 with Mark 15:34. When has a time of suffering tested your faith in God? What was the outcome of this?
