Third Sunday of Lent

The readings we will hear today remind us that we are fortunate to be alive for this blessed season of Lent. Why? Because it means we still have the opportunity to repent of our sins and to turn back to God with our whole hearts. We all sin; it is the human condition. But with hearts in the right place, we feel remorse for our sins and we promise God, others, and ourselves to do better. How lucky we are that we can! As we continue through this holy season, let us make the most of this opportunity.

Please take a few second to update your family information. Grab your envelope in the basket and make any updates necessary and return the updated form in the basket on the table in the back of church or give to Lisa. If you do not find an envelope with your name on it, talk with Lisa so we can make sure our records are up-to-date.

Missed Mass but still want to keep up with the news.... find our bulletins online at www.strosechurchil.com Under the Bulletins tab

Thank you

Thank you to everyone who helped with the recent storm damage. The back portion of the church roof sustained damage and will need to be replaced. As well as some siding damage to the house and roof damage to the shed. The cemetery also received damage including signage being destroyed and a few of the older stones were toppled as well as the cemetery being covered in cornstalks. Thank you again to anyone who has helped with any temporary repairs and cleanup.

March 24 - Curt VonBokel
March 28 - Averie Kauffmann

Please check the calendar on the table in the back (by the large painting) to make sure we have your birthday and anniversary.

RESPECT LIFE

“There is an everyday heroism, made up of gestures of sharing, big or small, which build up an authentic culture of life... Part of this daily heroism is also the silent but effective and eloquent witness of all those ‘brave mothers who devote themselves to their own family without reserve, who suffer in giving birth to their children and who are ready to make any effort, to face any sacrifice, in order to pass on to them the best of themselves’... We thank you, heroic mothers, for your invincible love! We thank you for your intrepid trust in God and in his love. We thank you for the sacrifice of your life” (The Gospel of Life 86).

FOR LENT, FOR LIFE

WHAT YOU GIVE UP FOR LENT CHANGES LIVES.

In Santa María Chiquimula, Guatemala, over half the community is affected by malnutrition. Amid rising food prices and job loss, Ana Belén and her husband were struggling to provide for their growing family. But they saw a ray of hope through their participation in a Catholic Relief Services’ program that helps them ensure their children are healthy and have the nutrition they need to thrive and play. Visit csrricebowl.org/week-3 to read this week’s Story of Hope.

If you would prefer to make a one time donation, please use the envelope located near the rice bowls instead.
